

English Questioning Structure.

There are two types of questions:

1. Information questions
2. Yes-No questions

| | | | | |
|-----------|------------|------|--------|---|
| What | Is – Are | | ...ing | Prepositions Adverbs Adjectives Nouns To-infinitive gerund |
| Where | Was – Were | | | |
| How | Do – Does | I | | |
| Who | Did | You | | |
| When | Will | He | | |
| Why | Would | She | | |
| How much | Could | It | | |
| How many | Should | We | | |
| How long | Can – may | They | | |
| How often | Have – Has | | ...ed | |

With these five steps the students will learn the following: verb conjugations in all their tenses, prepositions of time and places, adverbs of manner and frequency, adjectives, pronouns, linking words, nouns and so on. With Real Talking Structure you will learn vocabulary and expressions all the way by talking directly without textbooks or workbooks having the students to learn more than 3.000 words and more than 300 verbs that will make the students to communicate effectively in speaking English.